Respected Fathers' Rights Advocate Jeffery M. Leving & Accomplished Veteran Litigator Maureen A. Gorman Up Close & Personal

CHICAGO, March 17 -- Back by popular demand, respected attorney and fathers' rights advocate Jeffery M. Leving takes the stage at an encore "You Are Not Alone" event Saturday, March 20, 2010. This encore event stems from the well-received, original "You Are Not Alone" conference held at the Carter G. Woodson Library Saturday, February, 20, 2010.

"I'm honored to be invited back to speak at this momentous event. Empowering and educating each other are two of the most important things we as a society can do," said Jeffery M. Leving.

Leving along with accomplished veteran attorney Maureen A. Gorman; Monica Peek, M.D. from the University of Chicago Department of General Medicine; author Diane Martin are teaming up to bring attendees an even more energetic and educational experience this time around. Guests will delight in receiving personal attention from some of the most well-regarded and revered experts in their industry. Live entertainment, hands-on workshops, wellness clinics and interactive conferences set the stage for a fun-filled day.

Leving adds, "People need to attend and take advantage of the many free resources right at their fingertips."

Event Information:

Saturday, March 20, 2010 from 10:00am - 2:00pm
